

The weather presenter

The Beaverton family are planning a trip to the seaside. Each night, the Beavertons watch the weather report so that they go on a sunny day. However, the weather presenter is mischievous and doesn't always tell the truth!

The Beavertons have learned that the weather presenter only tells the truth on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.

The presenter only lies on the other days of the week.

Tonight, the presenter says: "Tomorrow, I will tell the truth."
